

FOUR-IN-A-ROW REVIEW

- Group kids into two teams.
- Give one team a stack of yellow plates and the other team a stack of red plates.
- Explain that kids will try to get four of their plates in a row inside of the grid.
- To earn a space, kindergartners will need to answer “Review Questions” (pack item 10) from days 1–4.
- Choose a team to go first.
- Ask any Review Question from Days 1–4.
- If the child answers the question correctly, he can place one of his team’s plates inside the grid.
- Kindergartners will continue playing, taking turns answering the questions.
- If a team gets four plates in a row, clear the board and continue playing until all questions have been answered.
- Thank boys and girls for listening and learning so well this week!

INTRODUCE THE BIBLE STORY

- Ask kids to share their favorite games.
- Tell kindergartners when it comes to people, Jesus does not have favorites.
- Say: “Jesus loves all people.”
- Challenge kindergartners to listen carefully to the Bible story to hear who tells that Jesus loves all people.

TELL THE BIBLE STORY

- Invite kids to point to themselves quietly when they hear the phrase, “Jesus loves all people.”
- Open the Bible to Acts 10 to tell the story.

JESUS IS FOR EVERYONE

Acts 10

Cornelius was a Roman army officer who lived in Caesarea (sess uh REE uh). He and his family worshiped God. Cornelius always prayed to God, and he gave to people who needed help.

One afternoon God sent an angel to tell Cornelius, “God has heard your prayers, and He has seen how you help others.” Then the angel told Cornelius to send men to the city of Joppa to find a man named Peter. So Cornelius did.

The next day, the men Cornelius sent found Peter. The men told Peter about Cornelius and about how an angel from God had told Cornelius to send for Peter.

Peter went with the men to Caesarea. Cornelius gathered his family and friends to hear Peter tell them about Jesus. Peter said, “It is against our laws for a Jewish person and a non-Jewish person to visit together in a home. But God has shown me not to think of people in this way.”

Peter added, “Jesus does not love one person more than another. Jesus loves all people.” He reminded them that Jesus had performed miracles and that Jesus had died on a cross, but God raised Him back to life. Peter said that Jesus told His followers to tell more people about Him.

Cornelius, his family, and his friends believed what Peter said about Jesus. They even asked Peter to stay with them for a few days. They were happy to hear that Jesus loves them.
